Two supplements have been developed to accompany THE CHILD'S WORLD OF CHOICES--STUDENT ACTIVITY BOOK and TEACHER'S GUIDE TO THE STUDENT ACTIVITY BOOK. THE CHILD'S WORLD OF CHOICES by Donald G. Davison, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, and John H. Kilgore, Des Moines Public Schools, Des Moines, Iowa, developed in 1968, is a social studies supplement designed to help incorporate economic understandings into the curriculum at grades kindergarten through third.

The STUDENT ACTIVITY BOOK contains children's activities based on the five economic generalizations presented in THE CHILD'S WORLD OF CHOICES. The TEACHER'S GUIDE TO THE STUDENT ACTIVITY BOOK provides the means to introduce children to the key economic ideas through planned activities. A series of discussion questions is provided for each of the activities. The guide also indicates the appropriate sections of THE CHILD'S WORLD OF CHOICES which may be used as reference in studying each economic generalization.
